

Data Notice – Surgical lights

Purpose of this notice

The purpose of this data notice is to inform you, in accordance with the transparency requirements for connected products under Article 3.2 of the EU Data Act, about the product data generated through your use of surgical lights and your rights regarding such data.

Please note that the information below regarding type of data, format, volume etc. may vary based on the use and setup in each individual case. Contact us if you have any questions related to your devices.

Product data generated by the connected product

Product	Type of data	Format of data	Estimated volume (bytes per day)	Capable of generating data continuously and in real time
All	Log Data containing information about log date, errors, failover tests, battery autonomy and counters.	Proprietary protocols	100	Yes

Storage of product data and retention time

Product	Capable of storing data on-device or on a remote server?	Retention time	Possibility to delete product data manually
All	On device	No predefined retention limit	No

How you may access the product data

Product data can be accessed directly in the product by proprietary protocol. Additionally product data can be sent to local third party system via serial ports and proprietary protocol.

Contact details for access requests

To request access, or ask questions about data access, contact Getinge through:

E-mail: data.protection@getinge.com