

Financial solutions tailored to your needs

Financial Services

Providing your patients with the best care possible often means investing in state-of-the-art medical equipment and healthcare solutions. As your services partner we offer a financial solution that enables your project to come true. Our financial team will work together with you to find the right solution for your needs.

Financing to ensure the right investment

We help you analyze your financial needs to ensure the right financing for the right investment. We can help you design and finance a whole new surgical facility, an intensive care unit or renew your Getinge equipment in the sterile reprocessing department.

Holistic view

With our technical and clinical know-how and expertise, we offer you the combination of high-quality medtech solutions and financial services to help you ensure both improved clinical outcomes and optimized use of resources.

Flexible financing

We specialize in a wide range of financing options, varying from trade finance, export finance, working capital finance, project finance, equipment & technology finance, and standard financing possibilities like leasing. We can also offer you tailored financing solutions such as managed equipment services or pay-per-use type payment models that we co-create together with you so to ensure we meet your needs and challenges best possible.

Worldwide market experience

Getinge operates globally, yet we place great emphasis on your local hospital conditions and country-specific challenges, no matter where in the world you are.
